Terms and Conditions

Receipt of a scholarship from the Kirkland Arts Center is limited to one student per family per quarter. Applicants are chosen based upon financial need. Although exhaustive financial records are not required, a failure to provide accurate information will be cause for revocation of all scholarship privileges. Scholarships are awarded for a specific quarter or session and may not be transferred or deferred. Receipt of a scholarship does not guarantee placement in a specified class. KAC awards aid which only partially covers the costs of a class. All scholarship recipients are expected to contribute a minimum of $20 towards a class fee. Prospective students must register in accordance with registration guidelines. The Kirkland Arts Center reserves the right to cancel any class or workshop. In the event of unreasonable conduct, KAC reserves the unconditional right to terminate a student's enrollment without a refund or reinstatement of scholarship monies.

I have read and understood the terms of the scholarship application and agree to these conditions. The information I have provided is accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge.
